4th SUNDAY OF GREAT LENT - Tone 4

Venerable John Climacus

Thanks to his prominent position in the Orthodox Tradition the Holy Fathers were prompted to commemorate the saint not only on March 30 but also on the Fourth Sunday of the Great Lent, that is, yesterday's Sunday, so that the saint's writings and example can benefit the faithful and to guide them properly in their spiritual struggle of the Great Lent.

Venerable John Sinaites is best known as John Climacus, for writing the renowned book The Ladder, a diamond among the ascetic patristic texts and a masterpiece of literature.

He came from a wealthy family and was well educated. Desiring to devote himself to Christ, he became a monk on Mount Sinai and soon became the abbot of that monastery there. However, he preferred the solitary life and stayed until his death in the desert place called Thola. The Ladder is the author's response to his disciple John, the abbot of Raithu Monastery, who had asked his spiritual father for guidance on how he and the brotherhood he led could attain spiritual perfection.

The Ladder of Divine Ascent is made up of thirty parts, which, as spiritual steps, lead from earth to heaven. Starting with the renunciation, that is, the decision to renounce the worldly goods and the total dedication to Christ, the holy author concludes with the virtue of love, which everyone who has conquered it has already united with God.

The Ladder is one of the most moralistic books and, for this reason, has been greatly appreciated by the Church. It is a good idea to study it and, according to its writings, to be humble, always guided by the Church and always with proper discernment.

Слава Навіки! Slava Na Veeky! Glory Forever!

Your love saves lives!

“My parents sent me away when I was seven. They promised to take me home every weekend, so I stood outside waiting every Friday. It seemed they would open the door the next second and pick me up in their arms. How could I not believe my own mother? But weekend after weekend passed, and they never showed up. Eventually, I stopped waiting.”

This is just a part of the story that Victoria from Lviv shared with us. It’s a story about finding hope in the darkest of times with the help of the Sisters Servants of Mary Immaculate, who gave her a place to live and a community to love and be loved by.

The Home of Hope ministry in Ukraine has been helping vulnerable girls for almost ten years. Girls who lost their foundations come there to start living a completely new life.

The generosity of Manitobans through the annual campaign of the Ukrainian Catholic Women’s League of Canada and the Lubov SSMI Foundation funds the annual operating costs of the Home of Hope. They rely on us. Will you join us in reaching our goal of $30,000 to support those who have lost everything or had nothing before coming to the Home?

To donate and read more of the girls’ stories, visit lubovfoundation.ca.

You can also give us a call at 204-942-0443 or stop by 1085 Main Street to have a chat and pick up a copy of the brochure with the girls’ stories.

Thank you for your support! It’s a blessing to be part of this community with you.
