38TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST – Tone 5

Sunday of the Publican and the Pharisee; Venn. Paul of Thebes (341), and John Calabytes (450);

Monk-martyr Pansophius (249-251); Ven. Prochorus and Ven. Gabriel (XI);

St. Tarasius of Constantinople

Sunday of the Publican and the Pharisee Beginning of the Lenten Triodion

The Sunday after the Sunday of Zacchaeus is devoted to the Publican and the Pharisee. At Vespers the night before, the Triodion (the liturgical book used in the services of Great Lent) begins.

Two men went to the Temple to pray. One was a Pharisee who scrupulously observed the requirements of religion: he prayed, fasted, and contributed money to the Temple. These are very good things, and should be imitated by anyone who loves God. We who may not fulfill these requirements as well as the Pharisee did should not feel entitled to criticize him for being faithful. His sin was in looking down on the Publican and feeling justified because of his external religious observances. The second man was a Publican, a tax-collector who was despised by the people. He, however, displayed humility, and this humility justified him before God (Luke 18:14).

The lesson to be learned is that we possess neither the Pharisee's religious piety, nor the Publican's repentance, through which we can be saved. We are called to see ourselves as we really are in the light of Christ's teaching, asking Him to be merciful to us, deliver us from sin, and to lead us on the path of salvation. Two weeks before the beginning of the Fast, as part of our preparation for Great Lent, Holy Week, and Pascha, the Church prescribes the reading of Saint Mark's Gospel. From Monday to Friday the focus is on the end times, and the Savior's death and burial.

Слава Ісусу Христу! Slava Isousou Christou! Glory to Jesus Christ!

Слава Навіки! Slava Na Veeky! Glory Forever!

The relationship between Christianity and Judaism is central to the identity of Christians and the church. Yet for much of the past two millennia, from the “parting of the ways” in the early centuries, the story of Christians and Jews has been difficult and troubled, culminating in the tragic events of the 20th century. In the aftermath of the Holocaust, there has been a renewed engagement between the two traditions, and with a proliferation of scholarship and deepening of knowledge of Second Temple Judaism over the last half century, a joint effort has been made by Christians and Jews to correct historical inaccuracies and prejudices and amend the theological traditions that had separated Jesus and Paul from their Jewish contexts and driven a hard wedge between communities sharing faith in the one God of Israel. Exploring these insights will help us renew the basis of our Christian faith and practice.

Fr Geoffrey directs the Orthodox Christian Studies programme at Trinity College and teaches in Orthodox liturgy, Scripture, and Pastoral courses. Fr Geoffrey received his doctorate in liturgical theology at the Toronto School of Theology, University of Toronto. He also serves as priest-in-charge of Holy Myrrhbearers Orthodox Mission (www.myrrhbearers.ca), an English language mission. He produces a popular podcast on Orthodox liturgy and life, Enacting the Kingdom, along with Fr Yuri Hladu, and represents the Archdiocese of Canada of the Orthodox Church in America on the Canadian Council of Churches' Commission for Faith and Witness.
